

Zwei Männer und die tote Biggi picknicken am Flussufer, ein altes Kind bekocht seine Mutter, bei der Arbeit wird die rechte Hand gelocht, sonntags erstarrt die Zeit, Oberamtsrat Huhnchen schwört Rache und schon Großmutter fuhr Motorrad - sechs kurze Geschichten, zwischen 2004-2013 in Literaturzeitschriften in Deutschland und Österreich abgedruckt (u.a. in Sterz - Zeitschrift für Literatur, Kunst und Kulturpolitik, Graz). Two men and the late Biggi enjoy a picnic together on the river bank, an old child cooks for his mother, at work the right hand is put in the hole-puncher and filed away, on Sunday time stops, the local government officer, Huhnchen, swears revenge and Grandmother drove a motorcycle! Discover six poignant literary miniatures from one of Germany's contemporary, post-reunification writers who with a subtle touch of irony and critical self-reflection observes the universal challenges of modern-day life.
