

God, Reason and Religions: New Essays in the Philosophy of Religion (Studies in Philosophy and Religion)

The first issue of the International Journal for the Philosophy of Religion appeared in the Spring, 1970. This collection of essays is presented in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the journal. Contributors to the volume are to be counted among today's leading philosophers of religion. Their published work is helping shape discussions of the philosophy of religion as we approach the beginning of the twenty-first century. Considered by some to be terminal at mid-century, the philosophy of religion has undergone a renaissance during the second half of the century. And the journal may be said to provide some of the explanation for this development. A special debt of gratitude is owed to Edgar Henderson, Robert Leet Patterson and Henry Sprinkle, founders of the journal. Without their vision and determination it would not have come into existence.
