

Lifes Play Book: 11 Plays to Success

This playbook will prepare youth for the biggest game that they will ever play—the game of life! Lifes Playbook: 11 Plays to Success depicts the life-learned lessons of Jabari K. Smith, author, counselor, entrepreneur, and former athlete. This book was written for student athletes and peers to gain knowledge of how sports can play a huge part in their future success. Each play was written to give the reader a blueprint of how to become successful in life by using the methods taught in sports. This playbook will prepare youth for the biggest game that they will ever play—the game of life! This playbook uses the language of athletics in order to better connect to youth. The content will intrigue student athletes from disadvantaged neighborhoods soon to be first generation college athletes. The plays are also beneficial to individuals outside side of the sports realm because it provides principles that are applicable to many different areas of life. These plays will not only assist student athletes and peers in becoming successful athletes, but more importantly, assist them in becoming successful human beings.
