

In the Moving Waters

In the Moving Waters is an original fiction which focuses on the struggle with depression and purpose in life of the main character. Joanna, a bright and lovely woman finds herself locked in the depths of mental despair and anguish, desperately searching for relief from this most insidious psychological calamity; she appears mired in the endless pit of depression. She, however, is relieved by coming to understand that she could overcome her predicament by living less for herself and more for others.
