

September Blue

This collection of poetry is the quintessential P. Allan Frederick. P. Allan reveals his mind, heart, and spirit as he presents each word in these fascinating poems. Each selection is a stepping stone in his journey to redefine himself and his new life. A certain revelation of character and a willingness to expose his innermost aspirations of life drive the reader to look forward to each new page. This noteworthy poet is the genuine article. Intense and dynamic poems such as I Tire, My Curse is My Muse, and Cosmic Love Song border on the brilliant and superlative. Search for hidden and sometimes obvious allegory in this collection of his work from the years 2001 through 2005. He just might surprise you...
