

In the outer rim of the Andromeda galaxy, on a planet much like our own, nations wage war and garner fragile alliances. Though peace is possible, the only constant is war. The ruthless Kyieran Empire has long since desired to conquer the peaceful continent of Illidra. Only Coridia, the largest nation of this peaceful land, stands in their path from achieving their goal. Lastly, the neutral nation of Solaria questions how long it can stay indifferent in the turmoil that plagues their planet. Prince Uric Kaiser of Solaria, born with powers unmastered and unknown, seeks desperately to find their origin. Princess Aerian Tyria, heir to Coridias throne, has been trained to fight wars for her nation. Although, she discovers her people will not back her without the delicate etiquette a Queen must also wield with war. The first book of this saga sets the stage for the characters that grow as individuals but come together by destiny. A destiny that is far more reaching than their humble beginnings, where many struggles, heartaches, and challenges must be overcome. A ten thousand year old galactic war requires resolution, and only their destiny will obtain a universal peace...
