

The Eleventh Group of Assignments: His Final Assignment

Ike, the hero of the rest of the series of assignments was at it again. This time around he hoped that it was going to be his final group of assignments as he battled evil doers. He started off with thieves and then smugglers, drug runners and bootleggers before going on to international businessmen. Finally he was instrumental in foiling a nuclear caper and in taking out a false preacher. He finally takes out as many evil doers as he could to make the society good enough for all. As usual it went from one action packed escapade through scintillating martial arts maneuvers to exceptional gunnery before taking off. The actions were predominantly breathtaking.
